

WHAT

DOES THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT MEAN TO YOU?

We believe the average business man is giving little attention to the ACT the millions of credit in reserve for the 7600 National Banks of this Country.

Our library is complete on this subject and we welcome you at any time to inspect the same, or to ask any questions.

The many friends of Jimmie Goodman will be pleased to learn that he has been exonerated in Nogales, Sonora, of the charge of passing Mexican counterfeit money. Jimmie is again circulating among his Nogales friends.

The clerks of Nogales wish to thank, not only the city council, but everybody who in any way assisted them in their successful efforts to secure the early closing ordinance, passed last Tuesday at a special meeting of the council.

Last Monday in Justice Gittins court, Fred. Miller and J. W. William were found guilty by a jury, of destroying a mining notice. Tuesday His Honor fined each of the offenders the small sum of thirty bucks. The boys settled.

The Nogales Steam Laundry is doing a fine business. The officers and stockholders of the company owning the big new establishment, are satisfied with their investment and Manager McIntyre said: "Nogales suits me, thank you, son."

Thursday night Henry Levin and party had a narrow escape from death, when his automobile plunged into the Santa Cruz river, near Tucson. The machine turned a somersault and landed on its wheels, leaving the occupants uninjured.

Thursday Secretary W. E. Holt of the Cerro de Plata returned to camp. The big silver bonanza continues to look good, and the work of installing the new plant is progressing nicely, notwithstanding the great rains that have interfered with transportation.

W. G. Bowman has purchased the property on which his new Bowman theatre now stands, from John Jund. Price paid not learned. The property is centrally located, and with the handsome new play house, is one of the most valuable on Morley avenue.

The Bowman Theatre has been leased to the Diamos Amusement Company of Los Angeles and El Paso. The company owns a chain of theatres in the southwest, and all first-class attractions engaged for the company's circuit, will be shown here, at popular prices.

Superintendent J. A. Small of the Nogales-Cananea branch of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, who recently succeeded Major F. A. Krohn, was here a couple of days the forepart of the week, on company business. Major Krohn has been transferred to the Guadalajara division.

The production of H. M. S. Pinafore, at the Bowman Theatre, by local artists, under the able direction of Miss Andrews, was a great success, and all who in any way assisted, deserve great credit. Should the play again be produced here, Miss Andrews and her company would receive a warm reception. Nogales is proud of the fact that she has so many amateurs who could make "good" in the professional class.

Charley Levin, brother of Henry, the commission man, was here several days this week from Naco, Arizona, where he is now successful engaged in the commission and brokerage business. He reports his family enjoying good health, and business in the line city good.

Rev. B. H. Mobles, of the Methodist church, is attending the district conference in Phoenix this week, and will be gone over Sunday. Tomorrow morning services will be conducted by Rev. Thacker J. M. Webb will preach in the evening. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

He is interested in a number of good mining properties, in which President Curtis of the First National Bank is also interested.

This week the Nogales Electric Light, Ice & Water Company ordered an additional unit for their new plant on Grand avenue. The new addition will be used as an auxiliary plant to have ready in the event of an accident plant. The management expect to have the additional unit installed some time in June.

H. T. Wilson, expert linotype machine operator, who when he is not working on one of the big dailies in Frisco, engages in the less strenuous but more profitable business of dry farming in the San Rafael valley, was a visitor in Nogales one day this week. He was going back to the cows and chickens for a well earned rest.

Robert Mitchell, manager of the La Cobiaza Mining Company's mines and smelter at La Cobiaza, is back from a short visit to the copper camp. He reports everything working nicely and says the smelter will be in operation in about ten days. Manager Mitchell made the trip to the mine and back in the company's big machine.

The people of Nogales, Irish and others, are grateful to Senator Ives for coming to Nogales to assist in making St. Patrick's day celebration a success. To Frank Barry and wife, Mrs. Chas. V. Fowler, Robt. E. Lee, Sam Dunne, John A. Jenkins, Arthur DeRiemer, Jack O'Keefe and Miss Mary Duffy, as well as the orchestra, especial thanks also are due.

Last week at Patagonia, Henry White and F. H. O'Neill of Pasadena, California, purchased from Col. R. R. Richardson, the Rupert group of patented mines, situated in the Santa Rita mountains, seven miles northwest of Patagonia. They also secured a bond on the New Era group, adjoining the Rupert from which the present owners have shipped good pay ore.

Jack King is back from a visit to the Mammoth mine in Pima county. He made the trip by auto via Tucson. He said the great pile of tailings at the Mammoth is now being worked at a splendid profit. During the next two years the man who bought the tailings will make a big pile of money, without half trying. Such is the mining game, when one has the nerve to play it.

The National Hotel looks "spink and spank" in its beautiful new dress of green, yellow and white. Last Sunday the Mountain States Telephone Co. completed the installation of a private branch telephone system, and now Miss Mamie Donaghue, the popular ever accommodating manager, is wearing a broad smile of contentment. The National is up to the minute, Mamie's happy.

County Treasurer R. R. Earhart has purchased the splendid residence property situated on the corner of Elm street and Sonora avenue, a long time known as the Main property. Mrs. John Pomeroy sold the place to Attorney Ybarra of the Southern Pacific of Sonora, who last week disposed of same to Mr. Earhart. It can easily be made one of the most attractive homes in Nogales.

Gen Luis Torres, ex-governor of the state of Sonora, arrived in the city last Tuesday from Los Angeles. General Torres is a brother in law of the late George Grunig, the Hermosillo capitalist, who died suddenly in this city early last Sunday, as a result of a stroke of paralysis. After spending a few days here with friends, Gen. Torres will return to the city of angels, where he and family reside.

Don Franklin and Tom Hanlan are busy preparing to move into their new two story home on the Mexican side of the line, next door to Miss Rochine's big store. Messrs. Franklin & Hanlan have an international reputation for "square shooting." They are sure to do a big business in their new home which will be Nogales headquarters for Old Mission beer. Date of grand opening will be announced later.

J. Wells Smith, of the Havalena Mining Company, arrived in Nogales the forepart of the week from Los Angeles, his home town, and Thursday went out to the property of the company, situated on the west side of the Patagonia mountains. Recently some high-grade ore was taken from the property and shipped to the customs smelter. A number of Nogales citizens are stockholders in the company owning the mines.

Wednesday Lou Stevens, deputy sheriff at Patagonia, was a visitor at the county seat on official business. He reported his section looking up in a mining way. The new mine and camp supplies for the Flux mine have begun to arrive and are being assembled at the mine. The first installment include tents, wire for the tramway and a big motor truck. Superintendent J. E. Collie is busy establishing a camp in the lower part of the canyon near the mine.

W. E. Barnes, freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, after spending several days here boosting the Southern Arizona Fair, returned to Tucson Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Barnes expressed himself as pleased with the prospects for a great fair at Tucson, and hoped the people of Nogales and surrounding country would join in making it a success. Secretary Bristol of the Chamber of Commerce, has been very busy all week, boosting the Fair.

At the special meeting of the Nogales common council held last Tuesday afternoon, the six o'clock ordinance was passed by a vote of five to one. As a result Ordinance No. 53 will be amended and stores will be closed between the hours of 6 p. m. and 6 a. m. during the week and from 9 p. m. on Saturdays until 6 a. m. the following Mondays. The town attorney was instructed to prepare the ordinance and the matter will be disposed of at the next regular meeting of the council.

Electric Franchise Carries.

The franchise won by a majority of twenty-five votes, out of a possible four hundred and nineteen. Two votes, one for and one against, were thrown out by the judges.

An usually large vote was cast.

From the time the polls opened at six o'clock in the morning until six in the evening, friends of the franchise and their opponents were as busy as cranberry merchants.

Everybody did his best, and the active workers for and against the franchise, deserve credit for work well done.

With two electric power plants, backed by unlimited capital, Nogales has indeed a bright future.

Both companies, The Nogales Electric Light, Ice & Water Company, the winners of last Monday's election, and the International Gas Company, to whom the Nogales voters granted a franchise some time ago, have the confidence of our people.

Both companies will be required to "shoot or give up the gun."

"Wearin' o' th' Grane."

The celebration of St. Patrick's day at Masonic Hall last Wednesday evening was the most successful ever witnessed in Nogales.

The big hall was crowded to the door, more than a hundred Hibernians and their friends being unable to get into the building.

Every number on the long, interesting program was well received.

Everybody did well and the music by the 12th Infantry orchestra was excellent.

Senator Eugene Ives of Tucson delivered a scholarly address, during which he paid high tribute to Ireland's patron saint and the noble sons and daughters of Ireland throughout the world. Senator Ives' address was followed by a social dance which was greatly enjoyed by all.

To all who assisted in making the celebration a success, thanks are due.
